

Workshop

Docu-Reflection

Context

Between and beyond

An investigation of displacement between artistic disciplines

Brief description

The artistic research project experimented with a new form of method exchange between the artistic disciplines of dance and music

The cross-aesthetic development potential of the individual artistic disciplines was explored through displacement, concepts of resonance, virtuosity, and sensibility

Authors

Laura Navndrup, Associate prof.
The Danish National School of Performing Arts

Carolina Bäckman, Freelance choreographer

Henrik Knarborg, Associate prof.
The Royal Academy of Music, Aarhus

Christian Windfeld, Assistant prof.
The Royal Academy of Music, Aarhus

What is

?

Docu-Reflection

it is this

Instructions

Preparation

- Groups of 4
- Pen & paper
- Crayons-scissors-glue
(if possible)
- Approx. 60min

Step 1

Reflections (15min)

- Write down your reflections on the last few days we spent together

What comes to mind and what resonates within you at this moment?

— — —

Step 2

pass the document to another group member

Poem (15min)

- Read the reflections of another group member and write them a poem based on your immediate impression of the text

— — —

Step 3

pass the document to another group member

Illustration (15min)

- Read the reflections and the poem you've just received from another group member and make an illustration for it

— — —

Step 4

pass the document to another group member

Title (10min)

- Read the reflections, the poem and investigate the illustration you've just received from another group member and give the whole thing title

— — —

Step 5

pass the document back to the author of the reflection

Enjoy your gift

- Read your own reflections again and enjoy your group members interpretations of your thoughts
- Share your experiences within the group or split up and let it resonate within you

— — —

Final thoughts