Timeless Impressions is a cycle of 3 concerts around clarinet chamber music.

With this title I wanted to show my idea of what my Soloist concerts are going to be. Timeless Impressions consists of bringing music from different parts of the world to make a broad concept of what classical music involves. I have chosen different composers spread in time, so it can be an even richer experience. This, together with my passion for chamber music, have created these cycles of concerts.

Following the lead from clarinet chamber music, I have divided the concerts, depending on the number of instruments in the piece. Meaning that first experience is duos, second would be trios and third, quartets and quintets.

Today, I am performing the first Experience, where you are going to listen music from France to America including Germany, Finland, Austria and Brazil. The music has unique language, based on completely different characters, colors and tones. I hope you feel this experience as a trip around the world with no limits.

This concert could not be done without these 3 great musicians that today are sharing stage with me: pianist Jakob Alsgaard Bahr, flutist Neus Signes Llinares and clarinetist Iván Gómez Alonso.

Second and Third Experience is coming in winter and summer 2021.

Hope to see all of you there! :)
